THE NEWS.

NEW YORK.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The gold market was greatly excited to-day. The fluctuations were wide and frequent, and the variations of buoyancy heavy. Gold opened at 112¾, advanced to 113, declined to 112¼, and rallied to 114⅛, which was the highest point reached. The excitement was considerably augmented apparently by the news of the recovery in the price of United States bonds in the European markets, the decline to-day having been introduced to the contrary, and made a [illegible]
